LockMyCrypto (LMCX) – Terms of Coin Sale

Last updated: October 2025

1. Overview

These Terms describe the conditions of the public token sale (“Fairlaunch”) of the LMCX utility token by LockMyCrypto (“Project”). Participation in the sale means you agree to these Terms.

2. Nature of LMCX

- LMCX is a utility token used to pay protocol fees inside the LockMyCrypto platform.
- LMCX is not equity, security, or debt. It does not give voting rights, dividends, or ownership in the Project.
- The token has no guaranteed financial return and its value may fluctuate or fall to zero.

3. Sale Details

- Sale Type: Fairlaunch on GemPad.
- Blockchain: BNB Smart Chain (BEP-20).
- Token Symbol: LMCX.
- Total Supply: 1 Billion LMCX.
- Tokens Offered in Fairlaunch: 50% of total supply.
- Smart-Contract Address: 0x1C7DF7db5a205fE3749838d9Df299f121C2FDC5f
- Team Allocation: 15% — subject to vesting with 3-month cliff.
- Liquidity Pool & Team tokens will be locked after launch for transparency.

4. Participation Requirements

- Participants must use a compatible wallet (e.g. MetaMask) to send BNB to the GemPad contract.
- Participants are responsible for their own gas fees and wallet security.
- Do not send funds from centralized exchanges or custodial wallets.

5. Risks & Disclaimers

- Participation is at your own risk. LMCX tokens may lose all value.
- The Project gives no warranties or guarantees of profit or token price.
- Digital-asset regulations may vary by jurisdiction; participants must ensure they comply with local laws.
- No refunds once the Fairlaunch is completed.

6. Future Development

- Funds raised will support protocol development, multichain lock engine, dashboard, UI/UX, and other roadmap goals (see One-Pager / Whitepaper).
- Future upgrades such as decentralized escrow and bonus rewards for lock milestones are under research and not guaranteed.
